To Whom It May Concern:

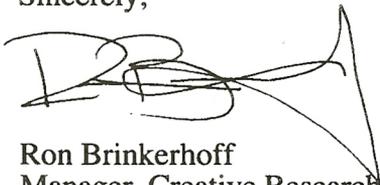

Casey Williams requested that I verify certain information to you.

Our company produces high concept material which we anticipate will capture large portions of the motion picture, video and television markets. With that in mind, I have reviewed two high concept screenplays written by Casey. His works are exciting, fresh and illustrate his unique writing abilities. However, due to conflicting projects we have not been able to enter into an agreement with Casey regarding his current scripts. We will be all too happy to consider any work by him in the future.

Original screenplays may be purchased between Writer's Guild of America's minimum of $58,411.00 and any price agreed to by the writer and purchasing agent -- many sales can exceed $1,000,000.00. Terms are negotiated on an individual basis. We are aware that Casey's work is currently under consideration and negotiation at another company. No company is likely to reveal the amounts being discussed for obvious reasons. However, if Casey has ascribed a value to you regarding his work, you may be assured that it is realistic. I know Casey to be a man of highest integrity. Further, his Academy Award attests to the respect he has earned among his peers in a very competitive business.

I trust that this will serve as an answer to your inquires.

Sincerely,

Ron Brinkerhoff
Manager, Creative Research
